

Shop The World

The Tower Shops at the Stratosphere offer the experience of shopping in Paris, New York and Hong Kong without the hassle of traveling across the world. And the mix of more than 50 stores features something for everyone, regardless of taste or budget.

China China specializes in Chinese gifts including martial arts items, Buddha statues, dragons and Chinese Zodiacs. Nearby, Airbrush Body Art sells custom temporary tattoos.

Almost everyone who visits Las Vegas wants to take home a souvenir, and the Viva Las Vegas store is a great place to find a special keepsake. Or take a part of Las Vegas home from CJ's Casino Emporium, where depending on the laws of where you live, you can buy a slot or video-poker machine. The Vegas Lights store offers neon aqua lamps and fiber-optic rose and flower arrangements.

If you were impressed by one of the many magic shows in Las Vegas, stop by the Las Vegas Magic Shop for a gander at the huge selection of practical jokes and magic tricks. Or stop by

The upbeat Tower Shops are configured with winding streets that are reminiscent of some of the world's most famous cities.

Magic Pens to check out their unique writing instruments that change colors and erase right before your eyes.

Another recent addition is Sports 'N' More, which sells rare memorabilia. No matter what your interest, you're bound to find a store you'll enjoy at the Tower Shops.

And, if all the excitement of Las Vegas has worn you down, get a boost at the cool and futuristic Breathe Oxygen Bar. Or visit the full-service Roni Josef International Salon and Spa for a relaxing chair massage.

Of course, no visit to the Stratosphere complete without a trip to the top of the 1,14' foot observation tower, the tallest free-standing building west of the Mississippi. Admi the view from indoor and outdoor observation decks, or ride the High Roller or Big Sh thrill rides.
